

Jacob is a lawyer whose practice focuses corporate acquisitions, mergers, restructuring, governance, property exchanges, and commercial transactions. Jacob serves as a trusted advisor focused on advising clients as they build their business on a foundation of compliance and stability. He also leads corporate asset and share transactions, guiding clients through the details of buying or selling a business. His practice includes regulatory advocacy. Whether a client is new or firmly established, Jacob seeks to provide cost-effective, tailored solutions that drive client success.

Before entering private practice, Jacob worked within the in-house counsel team of a global pharmaceutical and agribusiness leader. This experience gave him a front-row seat to the internal pressures businesses face, allowing him to provide advice that is not only legally sound but also practically actionable.

Born and raised in Calgary, he graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Management with honours, before attending the Faculty of Law at the University of Calgary. Jacob understands the Alberta economic landscape and understands its foundation within the framework of the rule of law.

Jacob believes that a lawyer's role extends beyond the office. He is a passionate educator and advocate. Jacob shares his expertise as a sessional business law instructor at Mount Royal University, helping the next generation of business professionals understand the foundations of corporate law.

Since 2023, he has been an active member of the Canadian Bar Association – Alberta Branch's Legislation and Law Reform Committee, where he contributes to the precise drafting of Alberta's statutes. Since 2024, Jacob has served as a director on a charitable foundation board, where he contributes to the management of a $9 million endowment fund dedicated to impactful community investment for Alberta youth.

Jacob is an avid scratch golfer, who constantly strives for improvement. This competitive drive and attention to detail are the same traits he brings to every legal file he handles. He is focused on precision, a calm demeanor under pressure, and a commitment to a strong finish.

Jacob wants to serve on the CBA Alberta Board of Directors because of his commitment to advocating for the rule of law in Alberta and support for its legal and judicial communities. He is also focused on keeping the CBA-AB relevant to students and young practitioners. Jacob is committed to serving all of Alberta's legal communities with energy, thoughtfulness, and dedication.
