

Raphael Jacob

Raphael Jacob is a Senior Associate at Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) in Calgary, where he maintains a commercial litigation practice with a focus on insurance defence, construction disputes, and product liability matters.

Raphael is the current Co-Chair of the CBA Alberta Insurance (South) Section and has previously served on the executive of the CBA National Young Lawyers Section. He seeks to join the CBA's Board of Directors to help shape the policies and programs which strengthen the legal profession, support young lawyers, and enhance access to justice.

Raphael is passionate about diversity and access to justice. He is a member of the National Diversity Council and the Race Action Committee at BLG. He has previously served as a board member of the Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers (Western) and the Law Society of Alberta's Lawyer Competence Committee. He regularly volunteers with the Civil Claims Duty Counsel (CCDC) project.

Raphael received his JD from Osgoode Hall Law School and holds a BA from the University of Calgary. He is called in Alberta and Saskatchewan.
